© 2008 Words & Music by Dewey Wallace

Please will you marry me?

I don't know, why its so
But I just want, to be with you, forever more
I want you to be the one for me
I want to be the one you wake up and see
I want you to join me for the rest of my life
I want you to be my wife, be my wife

Marry me, I'd be so happy
Eternally, if you married me

Marry me, and make me see
What we could be, if you'd marry me

They say its so, as we grow old
That our souls will merge as one, forever more
Please won't you become one with me
Please may I love you for all to see
Please will you share every part of my life
Please will you be my wife, be my wife

Marry me, we'd be so happy
Eternally, if you married me

Marry me, and make me see
What we could be, if you'd marry me

Please will you marry me?
